BOLTERS! B'GOSH!

"OLD, OLD STORY!"

Dr. Hunter Still Lacks Two Votes
to Win the Toga.

DENOUNCING THE TRAITORS!

Special to The Public Ledger.

FRANKFORT, March 27th.
The same old story—the regular Republican caucus nominate two votes short of an election, and six men who were elected as Republicans throwing their votes away!

The rollcall in the Joint Assembly showed 130 present—66 being necessary to a choice.

The following pairs were announced
before the balloting began: Senators Fulton and Stege, Representatives Morgan and Furnish, Garrett and Horton.

This is the ballot—

Hunter..... 64
Blackburn..... 46
Davis..... 13
Boyle..... 6
Stone..... 1

Dispatches have been pouring in from all quarters, commanding the loyalty of the the Hunter men and denouncing the
"bolters."

Indigitation meetings have been held at Munfordville, Versailles, Pineville and Nicholasville demanding that the "bolters" either support the party's nominee or resign their seats.

At the Versailles meeting the Hon.
Samuel D. Pinkerton was one of the speakers, and here's a part of what he said of the "bolters":

"Their conduct is contemptible and damnable; they are blocking state business, squandering $1,000 a day; six bul-headed men putting themselves at sixty-four other men and saying, 'We are right and they are wrong.' Let a hold meetings all over Kentucky and require them to do right or drive them from the party."

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. John Dulay came in last night from Paris.

Mr. Hamlet C. Sharp returned last evening from Frankfort.

Dr. J. H. Samuel was very much in Circles
last evening.

Miss Blanche Kirkland of the county is visiting at Concord.

Mrs. Laura Hall and son have returned from a visit to relatives at Vancburg.

County Clerk W. D. Cochran went to Danville
this morning, to remain over Sunday.

THE LEVEES

On the Lower Mississippi Show Signs of Succumbing.

The Situation at Helena, Ark., Is Pronounced Very Ticklish.

State Confused Being Worked on the Lower Mississippi.—The War Six Feet Below the Level of the Water—Situation Frightful.

MURPHYS, Tenn., March 27.—The river Friday night stands 38.55, a slight decline for the 24 hours. Reports from southern river points Friday evening are not altogether reassuring. The situation at Helena is pronounced very ticklish at Greenville decidedly precarious; the levees at these points showing signs of succumbing to the water pressure. Large forces are employed there; they are held in reserve, controlled by Gen. McLaughlin also went there Friday evening in response to a telegram. But there was a small fire in the Arkansas district Friday night, but it was viewed with no particular concern.

A number of other Mississippi points report the levees somewhat critical, with water crowded over them in places, while in others they are holding up. Helena, however, Friday night the charge that Deas levees had been cut, parties declaring that they saw the levee broken, engineer do the cutting. The writer, who says he protested, but without avail, and stood on the levee and saw his crits and contents, some of his live stock fowls and household effects swept away by the water thus let loose by the levees.

JACKSON, Miss., March 27.—A special from Greenville says that the river was standing inch high during 24 hours ending yesterday noon, and more is coming. The town of Greenville, between which and the river there is a protection levee, is now six feet below the level of the water, but the natives have confidence in their ability to hold the fort. A letter from Greenwood says:

"The levees seem strong, but the water is within inches of the top and bottom. A bank would easily destruction of millions of dollars' worth of property in the great delta, where crops of cotton and corn have already been pitched."

SAN SALVADOR, Cuba, March 27.—A dispatch from Valdosta, Ga., says the rapidly with which the Withlacoochee river rose Thursday night indicates that there was a water spot in the country before hand. The writer of the rate of two feet an hour and nearly twenty feet during the night. It ran over the tracks of the Plant system at Ousley station and washed away a large portion of the bridge there. All trains on that line west of this city is suspended.

Seven washouts are reported between Valdosta and Montgomery. The construction trains on both roads here are working night and day to make repairs.

A dispatch from Quitman, Ga., reports the surrounding country flooded and Quitman cut off from the outside world. Several treasuries have been washed away.

JUDGE NATHANIEL C. SEARS (Republican Candidate for Mayor of Chicaho, Illinois.)

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 27.—The grand jury Friday evening brought in an indictment against William G. Bickel, president of the Minnesota sugar, bacon and flour company, who closed his doors January 15. Several charges were made against Mr. Bickel that he had accepted deposits, but made no record of them in the books of the bank, and had concealed his gold and furnished bondsmen, but Judge Kelly refused to take any action Friday night, and Mr. Bickel was turned over to a deputy sheriff.

Detractive Fire at Des Moines.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 27.—The whole of the lower floor of the home of Mr. Riegelman & Co., a loss of about $30,000 by fire Friday afternoon. The second and third floors were burned out and the stock on the first floor was ruined by water and smoke. The insurance paid $20,000. The loss was about $100,000. They will resume business at once in new quarters.

Frost in Georgia.

CHARLESTON, Tenn., March 27.—A heavy frost is reported to have prevailed over North Georgia Friday morning. The fruit crops, which promised to be unusually large, will be greatly damaged, which will cause a loss of many thousands of dollars.

Another Great Disaster.

NEW YORK, March 27.—There has been a big shake-up in the office of the Brooklyn Sugar Refining Co. As a result Claus Doscher, a member of the trust and exponent of the company, and James Morrissey, the manager of a massive refinery in Long Island city with an output of 4,000 barrels a day, and the establishment may be come independent of the trust.

B. L. Garber Dead.

CARLTON MARSHALL L. Garber, the traveling salesman from Belleville, Ill., who was found unconscious in an alley back of 247 Fifth avenue, late Wednesday night with a bullet through his head, died Friday morning at the hospital without regaining consciousness.

Overcome by Gas.

DETROIT, Mich., March 27.—Superintendent of Construction H. E. Jennings, of the Western Union Telegraph Co., died Friday as a result of being overcome by gas in the Bunker tunnel, on the Colorado Midland railroad Friday.

IN CONGRESS.

The Senate Spends More on the Day Before Close—Doors—Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—SENATE—After the expiration of the day before close, the Senate spent in the Senate building doors, where not only was the arbitration treaty, but in some of its better parts, but also the party resolutions in the Senate—no definite results being arrived at on either subject. The civil service commission was subjected to another raking down at the hands of the Republicans, and a bill for an inquiry was offered and adopted as to the future disposition of the Union Pacific railroad, and the fate of the American sailors in Cuba. At 1 p.m. the Senate adjourned until Monday evening.

HOUSE.—The consideration of the tariff bill for the next session, for the purpose of providing revenue, was suspended, to be strictly business, opened with the liveliest political contest of the session, lasting for three hours. The bill, introduced by Mr. Dingley, of New York, was voted down. Most of the amendments, however, were adopted, and the bill was referred and on objection of Mr. Dingley all were ruled out of order. Mr. Dingley, however, moved to sustain the bill, and the trust the republican majority would do so, and that after passing this tariff bill would be introduced another, which would be introduced and on interest, it was voted to stand at that. At 9:30 p.m. the house adjourned until Saturday at 10 a.m. The bill was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means and one-half of the 100 pages of the bill.

PRESIDENT CISNEROS,
Of the Cuban Republic, Reported Dead—Gen. Gomez Military Dictator.

HAVANA, March 27.—It is reported here, from what is considered a reliable source, that Gen. Gomez, the successor of President Cisneros of the Cuban republic, are true; that Gen. Gomez has become military dictator of the patriot government, and that Gen. Garcia has been made commander-in-chief of the army.

SEÑOR SALVADOR CISNEROS,
President of the Provisional Government of the Cuban Republic.

No more welcome news has lately been received here than that of the death of Cisneros will have a more disastrous effect upon the Cuban cause than did the death of Maceo. Maceo's murder seemed only to add to the patriotic flame.

THIRD JOINT BALLOT.

Dr. Hunter Still Two Votes Short of Electing Senator from Indiana in the Senate.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 27.—The third joint senatorial ballot still found Dr. W. G. Hunter two short, although only 66 were necessary to a choice, there being three pairs. The election was held at 10 a.m. Dr. Davies, who were paired had heretofore voted for Hunter; one was Senator Steg, who also voted for Hunter again. On motion of the Hunter side the joint session adjourned without taking another ballot. The republican state central committee deny the fact, but the reporter, however, adds, conceding Dr. G. Bradley for his course in the senatorial contest.

KNOCKED OUT IN THE FIRST ROUND.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 27.—The boxing contest between O. C. Smith, 160 pounds, and John Wilson, 162 pounds, at the Waldorf-Astoria, here, Friday night, was not won by Hunter again.

On motion of the Hunter side the joint session adjourned without taking another ballot. The republican state central committee deny the fact, but the reporter, however, adds, conceding Dr. G. Bradley for his course in the senatorial contest.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 27.—A man was killed Friday night at the anti-Hunter leaders will attempt to prevent a quorum at Saturday's joint session, owing to a persistent report that the Hunter people have secured the vote of another democrat and will attempt to elect while so many members are paired.

An Alderman Found Dead in Bed.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 27.—Alfred J. Rafferty, of the Sixth ward, who was found dead in his bed, the cause of his sudden death has not yet been ascertained. He was at his work in the city assessor's office Thursday apparently in usual health. He was the best known young man about town. Mr. Rafferty was 30 years old. He leaves a widow and two children.

The Hazelton Green Victims.

HAZELTON, Ind., March 27.—The bodies of the men in the Evansville & Terre Haute wreck at Hazelton have been recovered.

Divers have found the bottom of the smoking car, but all the top and side panels have been torn off.

It is believed that the conduct of Conductor Sears in the car the fact the disaster could not be fully established.

Opposed to Women Delegates.

TRENTON, N. J., March 27.—A Friday session of the New Jersey Methodist conference, a vote was taken on the question of the admission of women as delegates to the general conference and resulted: In favor, 85; against, 103. There was no debate.

May Abolish the Death Penalty.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 27.—The state senate has passed the death bill providing for the abolition of capital punishment. The bill recently passed the house and now only waits the governor's signature.
